

III Sem. B.Sc. (M.S.CS) Students Presented Papers in International Conference

Sree Vidyanikethan Engineering College, A. Rangampet has organized three day International Conference on “Smart Computing and Control of Systems” 2019 (ICSCCS 2019) from 17th to 19th October, 2019. Nine students from III Semester B.Sc. (MSCS) presented two papers in the Conference. Many faculty members, research scholars, UG and PG students of traditional and professional colleges, from all over India and abroad, presented papers.

One paper entitled “A literature study on IoT and its applications” was presented by R. Rushitha, P. Prathyusha, A. Lakshmi Priya, D. Salma and S. Sathvika. Another paper entitled “A literature study on Smart Cities and its applications” was presented by B. Sobha, S. Poojitha, D. Saleema and M. Chaithanya.

Mr. K. Murali Mohan, Lecturer in Computer Science and the Head, Department of Mathematical Sciences conducted orientation classes for these students, for one week and prepared them for the conference.

Team which presented paper on "A literature study on IoT and its applications" receiving certificates from Director of SVEC - Dr. D. V. S. Bhagavanulu

Team which presented paper on "A literature study on Smart Cities and its applications" receiving certificates